DIA-CIA Relationships

1. Reference DIAIG Memorandum C-891/IG, subject as above, dated November 1967.

25X1A

2. The Defense Intelligence School (DIS) has attached to it a permanent CIA Faculty Advisor and Liaison Officer, [redacted] who represents CIA with the Commandant, DIS, conducts instructions in same subject and serves as the channel for DIS requirements for CIA training including lectures, briefings, tours, and training materials. Within the framework of "Need to Know" and other security limitations, he clarifies questions concerning CIA for the DIS staff, faculty, and students.

3. CIA lecturers present many subjects to DIS courses, not only on CIA Organization and Functions, but on general intelligence subjects as well in which they have special expertise.

25X1A

4. In view of the special interest expressed in [redacted] DAO relationships, it should be noted that both DIA and CIA address this subject with students in the Attache Course supplemented by visits to CIA and individual briefings on the country to which the attache is assigned.

5. Estimated time required to brief on these relationships is 10 minutes.
